NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—Yesterday's increased volume of business was cut in two to-day, the aggregate sales falling to below a quarter of a million shares. The most of this again was done in the first two hours of trading. Prices of a number of the principal market leaders ran off in that time a point or more. There was no important recovery after that, but the market fell into profound duliness and neglect, and prices remained almost motionless. The closing was lifeless and heavy. There was nothing in the news of the day bearing on the reversal in the direction of the prices of stocks, It was accepted simply as a demonstration of the fullity of the efforts of professional traders to move prices upwards to any large extent.

A part of these efforts had consisted in conveying the impression that the large financial interest were in sympathy with the movement. There were understood to show that the large banking and rallroad interests efforts to advance of these professional efforts to advance of these professional efforts to advance to the processional constant while professional bears were attempting to force declines during the past week, and who were supposed to act for great financial leaders, sold open to week, and who were supposed to act for great financial leaders, sold open yet of the prices.

it was intended to discourage efforts to lit prices.
Yesterday's views of the transfer of the underwriting syndicate's holding in Metropolitan Securities to other inside interests, was decidedly modified today. The sise in the local tractions yosterday helped the advance elsewhere, and today's sharp reaction in those stocks was of corresponding sympathetic effect. Wall sitreet was inclined today to regard the operation rather as a withdrawal of important interests from the company than as a measure looking to further consolidation of interests as was the case vesterday. The Weather Bureau's weekly report was not consideed reassuring either as to cotton or corn, and the wheat market also reflected buillish sentiment. The very favorable statement of the Reading system, was made the occasion for profit-taking in the same way that other recent good showings have been.

Henrico Campaign Closes With Two Rallies To-Night.

WILL VOTE TO-MORROW

Candidates to Fire on East and West Ends Simultaneously-Feeling of Relief that the Battle Is interesting, developments in the Henrico county Democratic campaign on yesterday, which will be brought to a close with the allent falling of the ballots of

The struggle will wind up with two monster meetings to-night. One will be held at Terry's Hall, in Shumaker's precinct, and the other at Hardin's Shop cinct, and the other at Hardin's Shop, which is just beyond the eastern extremity of the city. Thus will be closed one of the largest and most spirited struggles fought out in the county for many years, and as to some of the offices, the result seems in much doubt. The candidates will go from one meeting to the other to-night, and the eastern and western extremites of the city will be ablaze with fiery campaign oratory at the same time. The second temporary registration under the new Constitution is about to be completed in the county, and it has greatly increased the Democratic vote.

USE SECRET HALLOT.

The primary will be held under the secret ballot system, and the ticket will be quite a long one. A very heavy vote is expected, and the deepest interest will likely be manifested about the polling places all during the day.

Yesterday things were quiet around the courthouse. Most of the candidates for field offices were there at some time or other during the day, but they only called in passing, so to speak, and went on their way among the byways and hedges in quest of votes. Some speciacular oratory is expected to-night, and it is probable that some of the final specches will be full of life and spirit.

It would be hard to say in which of the contests the greatest public interest prevails, or which will be the closest at the finish. which is just beyond the eastern extremity rais, or which will be the closest at the finish.

The Hodse members, all the county and most of the district officers have opposition, and the fight promises to be lively at every precinct in the county to-morrow. For the House, it looks, as if Mr. Gardner and Mr. Rosenegk are leading, though the friends of Judge Wickham and Messrs. Jones, Russell and Binford all claim great strength for their respective favorites.

Messrs. Jones, Russell and Binford all claim great strength for their respective favorities.

ALL SEEM CONFIDENT.

Sheriff Solomon appears confident of a renomination, while Mr. Tiller has furnished him a most aggressive and active opponent. Messrs. Waddill and Broaddus are both claiming the clerkship, while Messrs. Brauer, Heehler and Todd are in a pretty three-cornered struggle for the treasurership.

One of the most spirited fights is for the office of Commonwealth's attorney. Senator Julian Bryant, who has never lost a political battle, is putting up a fine hattle, while Mr. L. O. Wendenburg, a born fighter, and an attractive campaigner, is likewise very active. Mr. C. W. Throckmorton, long a resident and practitioner of the county, is claiming his own nomination with great confidence, and no one who is well posted seems to doubt that he will prove a powerful factor in the race.

There was an evident feeling of relief among the candidates and voters yesterday that the battle was nearing the end, and it will likely increase as the hours of agony wear on. A great crowd is expected to await the return at the courthouse to-morrow night, and many demonstrations of approval are anticipated by the friends of the successful candidates.

Negro, Who Made Incendiary Speeches, Shot and Killed.

Shot and Killed.

(By Associated Press.)

MEMPHIS, TENN., Soptember 1.—A. special from New Roads, La., gives further particulars regarding the assassination of L. A. Planving, a negro educator, near Oscar, La., Sunday night, by unknown persons.

Planving was principal of the Pointe Coupe Industrial College, an institution for the education of negroes. While on his way home Sunday night, on the main road, near False River, he was fired upon from a cotton field. The first shot struck the horse which the negro was riding, and the second struck Planving in the back of the head, penetrating the brain and causing, instant death.

It is claimed that Planving recently had been making incendiary speeches to the negroes of the community, advising them not to work for or to have anything to do with white folks, and it is believed that these utterances had much to do with the assassination.

Booker T. Washington was to have visited this vicinity next month as the guest of Planving, to deliver a series of lectures.

THE VALENTINE AUCTION CO.

Section Director E. A. Evans has issued the following weather crop bulletin:
With the exception of a few counties in the western portion of the State, notably Bland, Dickinson, Pulasic and portions of Rockingham and Wythe, where somewhat droughty conditions prevailed, the weather of the week was all that could be desired for crop srowth and field somewhat droughty conditions prevailed, the weather of the week was all that could be desired for crop growth and field work. The rains were for the most part abundant, and (with the exceptions above noted) well distributed, while the days were hot and sultry and the nights warm. Under these favorable circumstances the nativance of outstanding crops was rapid and vigorous, and as a rule they are maturing in a highly satisfactory manier. Late corn and tobacco at this time are looking fully as well, if not better, than at any previous stage of their growth this season, and present indication, are that, with a continuance of the present season able conditions, they will be full avoesied or one will be entitly a conditions, they will be full avoesied second crop will be out in nearly, at focalities, while pastures, considerable, and a good second crop will be out in nearly, at conditions, while pastures for second the season, are in unusually find outsiwhen, which are grown pancipally in the Valley division hay portions of this district, and considerable acreage of the state for canning purposes, and large quantities are now going to the onneries. There was some improvement in the condition for the season. Opportunity was had for field work, however, and the cultivatice resulting will be of material assistance. Cantaloppes and watermelons vary in condition, some localities reporting them inferior and others average. Considerable plowing has been done for fall seeding. The consensus of opinion among correspondents, excepting cribe in the drough, on account of the rains of the preceding week, the soil in some sections is still being a bundant, and the weeks the soil in some sections is still to we to work in the condition of the corn crop is very premising. The consensus of opinion among correspondents, excepting cribes in the drough is still to we could be desired for crop growth and field

The decorations of ferns and potted plants, mingled with the soft glow of colored lamps, made a, pratty background for the bridal party. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Boggs in impressive manner.

The stately bride was exceedingly handsome in her trading robes of white tafeth site, with pearl orangents, and her long bridal veil, shading the beauty of her vivacious face. The groom is the son of George W. Murray, of Harrison-burg, Va., and, with his brother, is engaged in the contracting business.

The attendants of the couple were Miss Masgle Litchfield, who was in white muslin, with bride's roses, and Mr. Frank Staoy, the brother of the bride.

Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the wedding scene, after which the bride and groom took the 7:30 train, followed by the many wishes of their friends for a long and happy voyage upon the fourney of life. Mr. Griggs With the Globe.
